Welcome to CORE! We are excited to be your teachers this semester. We are confident that it will be a fun semester in which we will learn and grow together. Our goal is to help you improve your English skills in four different areas: listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Class Time: Monday-Thursday 4:20-5:25 in room 205

Course Objectives:

Grammar

- Students will be able to correctly recognize and produce verb forms in simple present, present continuous, past tense, past continuous.

Listening

- Students will be able to identify main idea and details from a listening passage.

Speaking/Pronunciation

- Students will be able to summarize listening paragraphs on topics related to social, community, economic and academic issues.
- Students will be able to generate, share, and defend opinions on various topics.

Reading

- Students will be able to identify main idea and details from a reading passage.

Writing

- Students will be able to write groups of sentences connected in meaning related to life skills and immediate needs (notes, letters, applications, etc.)

Midterm Party

On February 11th, we will combine with the other CORE classes this semester. The party will be held in the gym, and our class will be able to present a final project together.

Policies

Attendance: To receive the certificate of completion, students must not miss more than 8 classes. Even if you are late or miss a few classes, we still want you to come to as many class sessions as you can.

Kids-in-class: Please do not bring your children to class. This is an ELC policy.
